

The Evolution of Saudi Legislation and Vision 2030: Enhancing Foreign Investments and Their Role in Economic Development

In recent years, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has undergone significant transformations in its economic and legislative policies aimed at boosting economic growth and reducing reliance on oil as the primary source of income. One of the most prominent of these transformations is "Saudi Vision 2030," a strategic plan aimed at diversifying the economy, promoting innovation and technology, and attracting foreign investments. To achieve these goals, the Saudi government has updated and developed numerous legislations to create a favourable investment environment for both foreign and local investors.

Additional information here.

The Rule of Law: A perspective on Global Challenges from Brazil.

In the contemporary world, the Rule of Law (ROL) faces unprecedented challenges. The modern constitutional framework, designed to safeguard individual rights and maintain the balance of power ...

Additional information here.

Law of Bases and Starting Points for the Freedom of Argentines

The Argentine Republic has two opposing views. Its wealth and productive capacities are known. Production in agriculture and livestock provides possibilities to feed more than 400 million people, almost ten times its population.

Additional information here.

International interest in the investigation of child abuse in Spain

The battle, country by country, to investigate the abuse of minors in schools, seminaries and parishes of the Catholic Church, focuses its attention on the Spanish process where several initiatives have converged: initially the journalistic one of the newspaper El País, and then the official one of the Ombudsman...

Additional information here.